

Rowland Hall: Middle School Sport Coach

School Overview

Rowland Hall is an independent school serving 930 students from 2PreK through twelfth grade on two campuses in Salt Lake City. Founded as an Episcopal school in 1867, Rowland Hall has been an independent institution since 1933. Rowland Hall's mission is "to inspire students to lead ethical and productive lives through a college preparatory program that promotes the pursuit of academic and personal excellence." The school offers a progressive education that includes a rigorous academic program, excellence in the arts, competitive athletic programs, and a nurturing and inclusive community. Located near the base of the stunning Wasatch mountain range and adjacent to the University of Utah, a world-class research university and medical center, Rowland Hall attracts a diverse community of families who may be third generation Utahns or recent transplants choosing Salt Lake for its recreational and cultural opportunities.

Middle School

Rowland Hall Middle School (grades 6-8) serves 200+ students and is focused on the academic, emotional, and social growth of students. The Middle School runs a 7-day rotating schedule with hour-long classes that allow students and teachers to see each other at different times of day. All middle school teachers serve as grade level advisors and on grade level teams with dedicated collaboration time set aside throughout the week to discuss students, curriculum, instructional practices and professional growth. In recent years, teachers have integrated more interdisciplinary learning, experiential and field studies, and have worked with our Director of Curriculum and Instruction, Director of Technology Integration, Director of Ethical Education, and Middle School Academic Dean to enhance their skills and practices in the classroom. The Middle School runs a 1-1 iPad program with Apple TVs in each classroom and most teachers host their curriculum in Google Classroom. The Middle School has a strong culture for experiential education including grade level class trips in the fall, five afternoons of Winter Sports, and a growing interest in opportunities for outdoor education.

Position Summary:

To instruct athletes in the fundamental skills, strategy and physical training necessary for them to realize a degree of individual and team success. At the same time, the student shall receive instruction that will lead to the formulation of moral values, pride of accomplishment, acceptable social behavior, self-discipline and self-confidence. Middle School Athletics include: girls and boys basketball, girls and boys soccer, girls volleyball, and cross country.

Ideal Candidate:

- Desire to work with middle school students and experience coaching middle school athletics
- Assist in the necessary preparation to hold scheduled sport events or practices and adhere to scheduled facility times.
- Responsible, sense of humor, flexible, self-reflective, and strong communicator (listening, writing, speaking)
- Ability to support the mission statement of the school

Stipend position as assigned per sport and reports to MS Director of Athletics.

To apply please send a cover letter, resume, and any other supporting materials to Shannon Casson at shannoncasson@rowlandhall.org. For more information about the school, please visit rowlandhall.org.

Equal Employment Opportunity

Rowland Hall is an equal opportunity employer, and as such, believes that each individual is entitled to equal opportunity without regard to sex, color, race, ancestry, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, physical disability, marital status, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under federal or state anti-discrimination laws. Rowland Hall's equal employment opportunity practices extend to recruitment, hiring, selection, compensation, benefits, transfer, promotion, training, discipline and all other terms, conditions, and privileges of employment.